

Markus Helavuori

Professional Secretary
Secretariat of the Baltic Marine Environment
Protection Commission (HELCOM)

Markus is responsible for the HELCOM Maritime, Sea-based pressures and Response working groups, with his core expertise being in the field of maritime environmental policy and regulation.

From 2011 to 2017 Markus worked at the International Maritime Organization (IMO) Secretariat in London and also has extensive experience from working with regulatory matters at the Finnish Ministry of Transport and Communications and the Finnish Transport Safety Agency. Mr. Helavuori holds a Master's Degree in environmental and marine biology from Åbo Akademi University, Finland.

HELCOM is the governing body of the Convention on the Protection of the Marine Environment of the Baltic Sea Area, known as the Helsinki Convention. The Contracting Parties are Denmark, Estonia, the European Union, Finland, Germany, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Russia and Sweden. HELCOM works to protect the marine environment of the Baltic Sea from all sources of pollution through intergovernmental cooperation.
